

Online Learning Quiz Bites, Stings, and Exotic Animals

Robert Lowe, MD, FACEP

It's simple to obtain online learning continuing education credit:

- Step 1: Watch a presentation via desktop browser or mobile device.
- Step 2: Complete a short quiz.
- Step 3: Complete an evaluation.
- Step 4: Submit completed quiz and evaluation to OhioHealth EMS via email, fax, or mail.

Thank you!

OhioHealth Emergency Medical Services

393 East Town Street, Suite 214
Columbus, Ohio 43215
(614) 566.9111 fax | 566-8077
ems@ohiohealth.com

OhioHealthEMS.com

-
1. After the initial stabilizations of the ABC's, what should be considered next?
 - a. Immediate ice, elevation, splinting and direct pressure
 - b. Antibiotic therapy
 - c. CT Scan
 - d. IV access
 2. Which of the following is considered a potential for high risk infection
 - a. Dog and rodent bites
 - b. Cat, human, primate and pig bites
 - c. Bird, dog and cat
 - d. Primate, pig, dog and bird bites
 3. All animal bites should be sutured closed
 - a. True
 - b. False
 4. 90% of rabies in the US are due to wild animal bites.
 - a. True
 - b. False
 5. Avoid narcotic analgesics & barbiturates in suspected scorpion bites due to increased toxin effects.
 - a. True
 - b. False
 6. 800,000 dog bites per year require medical care in the U. S.
 - a. True
 - b. False
 7. Pit vipers are the most common venomous snake in the U.S. & include rattle snakes and water moccasins.
 - a. True
 - b. False
 8. What are the four basic concepts of snake bite management?
 - a. Separate victim from snake & transfer to a medical facility
 - b. Slow the spread of venom
 - c. Calm the victim, immobilize and compress the affected area
 - d. All of the above
 9. Salmonella is carried by 90% of reptiles.
 - a. True
 - b. False
 10. Zoonotic disease include animals such as rodents, cats, dogs, wolves, bears, pigs, cattle, horses, kangaroos, camels, primates and can be fatal.
 - a. True
 - b. False